

Thursday, September 29, 2011 • Austin, Texas

Gov. Perry Appoints Three to Texas State Board of Plumbing Examiners

Gov. Rick Perry has appointed three members to the Texas State Board of Plumbing Examiners for terms to expire Sept. 5, 2017. The board enforces plumbing regulations and oversees examinations and the licensing of plumbers and plumbing inspectors in the state.

Enrique Castro of El Paso is president of E.C. Plumbing. He is vice president of the El Paso Chapter of United Plumbers of Texas and a member of the National and El Paso Builder associations. Castro received an associate degree from El Paso Community College. He is being reappointed.

Janet Gallagher of Pflugerville is the building official for the City of Leander. She is vice president of the Capital Area Building Officials Association, a voting member of the International Code Council, a member of the National Fire Protection Association, and past president of the Bluebonnet Chapter of the Southern Building Code Congress International. She is also a past board member of the Air Conditioning and Refrigeration Advisory Board and Heart of Texas Big Brothers Big Sisters, past troop leader of the Central Texas Council Girl Scouts of America PAWS Service Unit, and a past member of the Georgetown Lions Club. Gallagher received a bachelor's degree from St. Edward's University.

Rick Guerra of Austin is president and CEO of Jose I. Guerra. He is a member of the National Society of Professional Engineers, Texas Council of Engineering Companies, American Society of Heating, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning Engineers, American Society of Plumbing Engineers, and Construction Specification Institute. He is also a member and past vice president of Region III, and past president of the Travis Chapter of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers. Guerra received a bachelor's degree and master's degree in engineering from the University of Texas. He is being reappointed.